IATEFL Jobs Market At the IATEFL Annual Conference

Brighton 16-18 April 2011

The IATEFL Jobs Market gives leading ELT employers and jobseekers the place to meet – so you can either recruit the best candidates for your organisation or find your next big move.

Services for ELT Recruiters include:

- Pre-conference online posting of your vacancies, and in the Jobs Market area throughout the annual conference
- Flexible packages which offer:
Booths to interview or a private room, posting space for vacancies, display areas for company literature, CV collection, interview coordination with candidates, and free WiFi
- Interview scheduling pre-conference with online applications, and throughout the conference via the Jobs Market reception

Services for Jobseekers include:

- Access to current vacancies from a wide range of top ELT employers – online pre-conference, and in the Jobs Market area throughout the annual conference
- Space to chat with representatives from large global organisations about a career or location move
- Application submission service via the website, or via the Jobs Market CV submission service at the conference
- Opportunities to interview on site with employers
