

ATEFL Annual Conference, Brighton UK 16-18 April 2011

Vacancy

Company Name: British Council Thailand

Position(s): Head of Teaching Centre staff development, Bangkok

Location: Bangkok, Thailand

The British Council Thailand is recruiting a Head of Teaching Centre Staff Development to work in our Bangkok Teaching Centre from 3rd May 2011. UK passport and TEFL diploma essential. You will manage the internal and external training programmes including weekly teacher development sessions and the senior teacher training programme. This is a new post, reflecting the emphasis the Thailand Teaching Centres place on staff development and the quality of our teaching.

If you're an experienced trainer, ideally a tutor for DELTA, CELTA or CELTYL Extension, with a real enthusiasm for developing staff, this is a great opportunity for you to further your skills amongst a large teaching operation. The role will allow you to have a major impact on the development of our teaching staff and on the quality of our courses.

To get a flavour of our teaching in Thailand and see what our premises and classes are like, see the teaching videos here: <http://www.youtube.com/britishcouncilthai#>

The British Council is committed to a policy of equal opportunity and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community. In line with the British Council's Child Protection policy, any appointment is contingent on thorough checks. In the UK, and in other countries where appropriate systems exist, these include criminal records checks.

Remuneration:

Salary on a variable scale (depending on your qualifications and experience) in the range 115,000 – 135,000 Thai Baht per month. Flights for you and accompanying members of your family at beginning and end of your contract. Baggage allowance, settling-in allowance, matching contributions to pension, medical insurance also paid.

How to apply:

Go to www.britishcouncil.org/learning-teachingjobs and follow the instructions on our advert there. Closing date for applications is 7 February 2011

NB: The British Council will have many other positions available from now through to April when the Jobs Market takes place, and will be interviewing on site during the conference. Please follow instructions and closing dates for the individual vacancy.
