

PronSIG Scholarship

The purpose of this PronSIG scholarship is to encourage teachers interested in pronunciation to attend the PronSIG PCE and present at the IATEFL Conference. It is hoped that as well as benefitting personally from this opportunity, the scholarship winner will subsequently be able to disseminate their experience to fellow professionals. As PronSIG has a fully inclusive ethos, teachers of any background and at any stage of their career are welcome to apply.

The award consists of:

- registration for the PronSIG Pre-Conference Event
- registration for the IATEFL Conference
- travel and accommodation costs up to a maximum of GBP 1000.00 against receipts

To qualify you must:

- be a practising teacher
- be an individual member of IATEFL
- join PronSIG, if not already a member, on renewal of your IATEFL membership
- not be a current or past committee member of PronSIG
- be willing to give a presentation or lead a workshop on Pronunciation at the PronSIG Showcase at the IATEFL Conference
- write up your session for the subsequent edition of the PronSIG journal Speak Out!

To be considered you should submit:

- an online speaker proposal on Pronunciation by the scholarship deadline
- A 400-500 word essay including:
 - an outline of your personal background and teaching context (maximum 100 words)
 - a description of a pronunciation activity appropriate to your learners. The description should include the aims of the activity; learning outcomes; content and procedure; references to any materials or technologies used.

The submission deadline is 16.00 (UK time) on Wednesday 28 July 2021. Early submissions are very welcome; late submissions will not be considered.

The result of your application will be emailed to you between 25 August and 8 September 2021. Please do NOT contact the IATEFL Head Office about scholarship decisions; the Scholarship Committee will send everyone the results as soon as they are available.
