

Scholarship Sponsored by the TOEFL[®] Program

At ETS we aim to provide support to teachers worldwide and we are dedicated to giving teachers opportunity to realize their potential. This scholarship has been established to encourage and support English language teachers working in an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) setting to present their work to a larger international audience. The presentation should include the grantee's classroom research results or concern sharing practical tips and/or ideas for classroom activities that can help build necessary language skills crucial for effective use of English in an academic setting.

The award consists of:

- Registration for the IATEFL TEASIG Pre-conference Event
- Registration for the IATEFL Conference
- One-year IATEFL Membership
- GBP 800 towards conference expenses
- Mentoring from ETS for your presentation

To qualify you must:

- Be currently working as an EFL teacher/ lecturer
- Agree to present on EAP skill building or testing in the IATEFL Conference and submit a proposal according to IATEFL's guidelines
- Have taught English and prepared learners for taking the TOEFL iBT[®] test or have accumulated information about the effectiveness of using TOEFL test scores for decision making in various contexts
- Submit an article on your work and conference experience within 6 months of the event

To be considered you should submit:

- An online speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline
- An essay of between 400 and 500 words explaining your approach to EAP assessment and related skill building techniques, strategies and sample activities you have created
- A brief description (50-75 words) of your experience in teaching the EAP classes over the past 18 months

The submission deadline is 16.00 (UK time) on Thursday 23 June 2022. Early submissions are very welcome; late submissions will not be considered.

The result of your application will be emailed to you between 13 and 27 August 2022. Please do NOT contact the IATEFL Head Office about scholarship decisions; the Scholarship Committee will send everyone the results as soon as they are available.
