IATEFL LTSIG & LitSIG
PCE Harrogate 2023

TechLit! Exploring crossovers between technology and literature

Abstract

LTSIG and LitSIG will share ideas and best practices in incorporating technologically-advanced techniques in teaching literature and using literature to teach language. There will be plenty of opportunities, too, for attendees to exchange practical ideas on creating synergy between technology and literature.

Programme

Time	Session
9:30	Networking
10:00	Welcome and opening remarks
10:15 to 11:15	Plenary 1: The Digital Wilds, Fanfiction and Language Learning. Shannon Sauro
11:15 to 11:30	Coffee break
11:30 to 12:00	Session 1: Reading digital literary texts in ESL classroom: aspects of digital reading and reading strategies. Kalyan Chattopadhyay
12:00 to 12:30	Session 2: Transliteracy, Multimodality, Text and Beyond. Maria Davou
12:30 to 13:00	Session 3: The old and the new: integrating canonical literature and technology. Chris Wolf 📹
13:00 to 14:15	Lunch break
14:15 to 14:45	Session 1: Using technology to engage & inspire students in an online book group. Geoff Hardy-Gould 📹
14:45 to 15:15	Session 2: Embarking on reading adventures: utilizing technology and gamification to motivate students to read literature and keep at it! Caterina Skiniotou
15:15 to 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 to 16:00	Session 3: Graphic novels in the digital world. Aleksandra Popovski
16:00 to 17:00	Swap shop – Delegates' feedback and closing remarks